

WHITE TRAIL

The White Trail winds around the perimeter of Coolfont Mountainside property and features Easy to Moderate hiking.

Difficulty: Easy - Time: About 1 hour

- ◆ Park at the end of Dogwood Lane.
- ◆ Trailhead is next to the pump.
- ◆ Follow the white blazes on the trees.
- ◆ The trail will cross Wintergreen Way.
- ◆ At the top of the stairs, turn left on Bobcat Drive, left on Mountainside Road, and left on Dogwood Lane to return to parking.

Difficulty: Moderate - Time: About 2.5 hours

- ◆ Park at the end of Dogwood Lane. Trailhead is next to the pump.
- ◆ Follow the white blazes across Wintergreen Way and Bobcat Drive.
- ◆ The White Trail meets the Blue Trail.
- ◆ Take it south until you see white blazes and continue south until you reach Salmon Lane.
- ◆ Take Salmon Lane back to left turn on Mountainside Road. Go back to Dogwood Lane and parking.

Note: For a longer hike, when you reach the Indian Trail, hike north to Prospect Rock.

BLUE TRAIL

The Blue Trail is a steep hike to the top of the mountain, but you are rewarded with spectacular views!

Warning: The hike down may be more difficult, especially if there is a lot of leaf litter or the trail is wet and slippery.

Difficulty: Strenuous - Time: About 2 hours

- ◆ Trailhead is along Bobcat Drive near the intersection with Mountainside Road. Look for the small footbridge over the roadside drainage.
- ◆ There is no parking at trailhead. Please park nearby out of the roadway.

SAFE HIKING TIPS

- ◆ Know the trail. Stay on the trail.
- ◆ Wear appropriate clothing and hiking shoes.
- ◆ Bring plenty of water.
- ◆ Consider carrying pepper or bear spray.
- ◆ Watch for poison oak and poison ivy.
- ◆ Let others know your plans and/or hike with a buddy.
- ◆ Check the weather forecast before your hike.Keep track of your time and distance
- ◆ Let the slowest hiker set the pace.
- ◆ Yield to uphill hikers.
- ◆ Take breaks often. Stop to rest.
- ◆ Bring a map (like this) and compass.
